Well, it's a Valentine month, but we'll be making a Leprechan :) I am trying to look forward to Spring instead of complain about Winter. Actually, growing up in Wisconsin, Iowa winters seem pretty mild to me. But since I fell on the ice and broke my arm last year, I am very fearful of the ice. So if you see anybody 'shooshing' across the parking lot instead of walking normally, that will be me, trying not to fall!

- ☀ Last month's dishcloth pajama project went quite smoothly and turned out adorable. We had a rather low turnout for the meeting, so we are hoping next month is better. We do have some supplies left if anyone wants to purchase some.
- ☀ Our craft project this month is one that the club did many many years ago. It's a little leprechaun that you can choose to make into a magnet or a pin. It is made of wood and felt. Maybe some of you can remember it from the early days of the club?
- ☀ Upcoming events . . . March will again be our Potluck and Bingo day. So be thinking about what tasty dish you will bring.
- ☀ Our charity for this past month was the Catherine McAuley Center. We collected $31 for them, so will have them again this month to collect more money or items.
- ☀ Darlene Ozburn would appreciate anybody saving her empty Altoid Mint Tins for a project she is working on.
- ☀ Some of you still need to send in your registration form for the new year that started in October. Form on page 3.

Happy Birthday!

Love is blind. Marriage is the eye-opener.

A little silver-haired lady calls her neighbor and says, "Please come over here and help me. I have a killer jigsaw puzzle, and I can't figure out how to get started." Her neighbor asks, "What is it supposed to be when it's finished?" The little silver-haired lady says, "According to the picture on the box, it's a rooster." Her neighbor decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table. He studies the pieces for a moment, looks at the box, then turns to her and says, "First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster." He takes her hand and says, "Secondly, I want you to relax. Let's have a nice cup of tea, and then," he says with a deep sigh "Let's put all the Corn Flakes back in the box."

Time is too slow for those who wait, Too swift for those who fear, Too long for those who grieve,
Too short for those who rejoice, But for those who love, time is eternity.
