Next Meeting – November 15 – 4:30 p.m., Main Plant Cafeteria

CRAFT PROJECT: We will be painting angel bricks. You do not need to bring anything, except possibly a box or box lid to carry your project home.

REGISTRATION FORM: October is the start of our new year. If you haven't already done so, please fill out a new registration form and return the form and your check for $12 to Kate Leith. If you prefer to mail it in, the address is on the form.

CLASSES INFO FROM DARLENE OZBURN: We painted scarecrows and snowmen last Wednesday with Donita. Paint class after this month's meeting is the Snowman on the mink board. Supplies to bring: paint brushes, water basin, paper towels, transfer paper, and any other supplies you normally take to paint class. Please remember to always clean up your space before you leave. The janitor has requested that we cover the table with plastic because the paint is difficult to clean off the tables after it is dry. It is a privilege to be allowed to conduct our classes in this company facility – let's not abuse that privilege. Thank you.

Beginning Paint Class – Wednesday, November 29th 6:00 p.m. $15.00 Please pay when you sign up.

Bring any brushes and supplies you have. Donita will teach you different painting strokes, how to shade and highlight, how to do grass and fur. She also hopes to have brushes for sale. These will be the brand and type she uses on all her painting projects. She will see them 25% below retail.

Please call Darlene at 377-1974 if you think you may be interested in this class, or if you have questions.

Attention: Occasionally we may schedule a class after the newsletter has been sent. Items will be brought to the meetings and classes will be offered. If you are interested in taking classes, you should attend the meetings to check out what is happening.

BRICKS: Thelma Goetsch has volunteered to get our bricks for our November angel project. Much thanks to Thelma for doing that.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT: This month we will continue our collection for our Christmas Adopt-A-Family. We will decided on our family. It is a Mom and three boys, who lost everything in a fire a few months ago. The Mom says they need "everything". The boys ages and clothing sizes are:

Junior is 4, wears size 5-6, loves Spiderman

Riley is 8, wears size 10-12, likes racebikes and books

Jonathon is 12, wears size 12-14, likes skateboards and books

Mom is Barbara, wears size 12, Large shirts

They need a Christmas tree and ornaments and lights.

Aunt Stephanie also lives with them. She is size 34, medium shirts, likes books, journals to write in.

They need towels, blankets, and beds. Right now the kids are on a mattress on the floor.

If you have any other ideas on gifts, please talk to Joyce Smith or Arlys Huff about it. We are open to suggestions.

Remember to keep saving your empty prescription bottles with labels removed for the Free Clinic.

They ask that the bottles also be washed. Please remember that they CANNOT take non-Rx bottles or even the pre-packaged bottles from the drug company—only the usual pharmacy ones that are usually green or brown.

Thank you!

PILLOW UPDATE: We have heard that the travel size pillows may be a seasonal item in some stores, so especially if you're at K-Mart, snap some up if they're a good price. You can either donate them, or get reimbursed from our Treasurer, Dee Roman.

CRAFT SHOW: I heard the craft show was a big success, with quite a few new participants. Dee Roman has even contacted one of the participants about teaching an upcoming class for us. If you got any good ideas for us there, please share at one of the upcoming meetings.

REPORTS: Please remember that minutes and the treasurer's reports are available upon request.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT: Well, it's finally happened. I forgot to get the newsletter ready on time this month! If it weren't for a phone call from Arlys, who knows when I'd have thought of it. So, I apologize for this being late. The email people will get it on time, but I'm not sure about the rest of you. We had to have our board meeting a week later than usual, and I guess my internal schedule just got screwed up.

I tried the painting class last week and had fun. I think I should keep my day job though, as I do not show signs of extreme amounts of painting talent! I had been having a bad day before I got to class, and I must say that I was nice and relaxed by the time I went home. I plan to try the Beginning Painting class later this month to see if I can improve on my "skills". I'm also going to make one of those sweatshirt jackets as a gift for my Mom for Christmas.

Esther & I attended the Clubs & Leagues meeting last week. It looks like we will again get matching funds for our dues amount and possibly some additional money, but it would be less than last year.

On another note, if you haven't turned your new year's membership form in, please get it to Kate Keith.

Nancy Lacy sent me this poem and I thought you would all enjoy it. Author is unknown.

Grandma Lacy's Rabbit Poem

A family of bunnies lived under a stump;
They were merry, frisky, playful and plump.
All evening they danced by the light of the moon,
And begged Mrs. Bunny to get dinner soon.

Mrs. Bunny bought onions and peas in the shell;
Where the tenderest radishes grew she knew well.
With a carrot or two on a cabbage leaf plate,
The young bunnies chatted and oh, how they ate!

They had napkins of lettuce leaves tucked snugly in,
That covered them up from their toes to their chins.
They nibbled the good things and wonders to state,
And also devoured their napkins and plates.

Said Mrs. Bunny, "Housekeeping, I find,
Is a thing I can truthfully say I don't mind;
For my work is so light and my duties so few,
With no napkins to wash and no dishes to do."

*Recited by Alta Caroline Lacy in 1910, age 12
And still could recite it at age 95, in 1994*
